Obituary for Amariah Renee Leverette

Amariah Renee Leverette, born November 11, 2009, in Los Angeles, California, passed away far too soon on January 1, 2026, at the age of 16 in Prosper, Texas. She was the beloved daughter of Monica Youngblood Hill and a cherished member of a family that adored her deeply.

Amariah was a bright light—funny, smart, goofy, and kind. Her laughter could fill any space with joy, and her energy was contagious. From the age of two, she loved gymnastics and cartwheels, often turning mealtimes into a playful performance. She had a heart full of love and a spirit of courage that inspired everyone around her. Her compassion and strength were evident in the way she uplifted others and fought for what was right.

She was a junior at Memorial High School, where she excelled academically and was a proud member of AVID, HOSA, and the National Honor Society. Amariah dreamed of attending Baylor University to pursue a degree in medicine, with aspirations of becoming a pediatric hematologist/oncologist to help children battling blood diseases.

Amariah's passions were many—competitive cheerleading, crochet, painting, and bedazzling anything she could to make the world sparkle. She loved country music, especially artists like Gracie Abrams and Zach Bryan, and enjoyed relaxing with her favorite shows, including Bridgerton, The Office, and That 70's Show. She was an avid reader of romance novels and found peace in bubble baths and quiet moments.

Her faith was central to her life. A devoted disciple of Christ, Amariah was baptized in April 2023 and served joyfully at One Community Church through the Community Impact Team. She lived out John 13:35, showing love to all and leaving a legacy of kindness and service.

If you wish to help honor Amariah, the family ask you to donate to Honoring Amariah - The Amariah Foundation:

Amariah is survived by her loving mother, Monica Youngblood Hill; her stepfather LaNathan Hill, her father Nicholas Leverette, her little sister Bella Leverette, her grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and countless friends who will forever cherish her memory. She was preceded in death by none but leaves behind a world that will never be the same without her radiant presence.

Her light will continue to shine in the hearts of all who knew her.
