

Beauford Victor Hansen

Vic Hansen passed away on Thursday, March 19, 2015 in Houston, TX. Vic was born in Banning, CA in 1928. He graduated with a B.S in Geology from The New Mexico School of Mines and worked in the West TX oil fields for several years before serving in U.S. Army in Korea. Vic then earned a Master of Science from The University of Tulsa and began work with Pan America Petroleum in Houston and continued his long career as a petroleum geologist with Houston Oil & Minerals. Vic had an inquiring mind. He enjoyed books, music, exploring the world with his wife, and spending time with his family. He is survived by his wife Jane Williamson Hansen; his daughter Gaynor Keppta and her husband, Carl and their son Griffin of Leander, TX; his son Samuel Victor Hansen and his wife, Jennifer, and their sons, Zachary and Alex of Houston; and his granddaughter Julia Snoza and her father, Robert, also of Houston.
