

Beverly Kay Bounds

November 14, 1945 - October 10, 2025

Beverly Bounds passed away peacefully on October 10, 2025, surrounded by the love of her family. She was born on November 14, 1945, to Doyle and Naomi Dobbins.

Beverly was a devoted wife, mother, and friend who loved her family without limits. Her warmth, humor, and unwavering support will be missed deeply by all who knew her. She found joy in the simple things, especially her cherished trips “up North” with her husband Jerry—which, to those who knew her best, lovingly meant Choctaw. That sense of humor and unique way of looking at life were part of what made Beverly so special.

She is survived by her loving husband, Jerry Bounds, and her three beloved children Milette, Cary and Miranda. Her legacy lives on in the hearts of those she loved so fiercely.

Beverly’s life was a gift to all who knew her, and her memory will continue to shine brightly.
