

Chad Sean Baker

July 19, 1967 - July 29, 2019

Chad "Sean" Baker of Houston, Texas went to his eternal home on July 29th 2019 at the age of 52. He was born in Little Rock, Arkansas to J.R. Baker and Sue Brown on July 19th 1967. Sean graduated from Bryant High School in 1986 and after graduating moved to Houston to pursue a career in modeling and cosmetology. He had a great love for people and was a shining light in many lives. He was always the life of the party and loved to travel and had been all over the world. He loved life and his family and friends and we will greatly miss him. He is preceded in death by his father J.R. Baker and his Granny Copeland and his Grandpa and Grandma J.D. and Irene Baker and his beloved friend Amy Springer. He leaves behind his mother Sue and sister Teresa Watkins (David) from Katy, Texas a brother Robert Ellis of Bauxite, Arkansas, a sister Tina Ellis of Bauxite Arkansas, a Brother Mike Ellis (Lyn) of Bauxite Arkansas and Ruben Vela-Correa, his faithful life partner whom he loved with all his heart. Sean had many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins and adored every one of them. Also his beloved extended friends that he called family; Pat, Sherrie, Peggie, Tammy, Kim, Linda, Felix, Richard, Suzie Q, Heather, Michael, Suzie G., Becky, John and Liane, Dana and Pizo, Val, Josiah, Kaci, Mark E., Kenny, Todd, Thorne, Barbara, Kayla, Cathy, Kat and Milton, Scott, Lana, Joey and Franny, Florida and California friends, Chef Paul, Cozy gang, Midtown motley crew gang, his loving clients, and his loving love bug TRUMAN. Thank you to all who assisted during his illness that loved him and cared for him.
