

Charles D. Horn

His family and friends are deeply saddened by the death of Charles David Horn in August, 2014. He is survived by his beloved wife and dear companion, Nanci Lucas Horn. He was preceded in death by his parents, Dorothy Janet Horn and Paul Herbert Horn. Chuck was born in Amarillo, Texas on February 25, 1954, the youngest of five children: Rebecca Horn, Jan Horn, Stephen Horn, and Sharon (Horn) Wagoner. He was a graduate of the University of Texas (Austin) and thoroughly enjoyed his career as a petroleum land man. Known for his wit and quick mind, he enjoyed spending time with friends and travelling with his wife. He had a special bond with his faithful dogs, Ragsy (undoubtedly awaiting him in Heaven), Scout, and Troopre. When he accompanied a friend to adopt a pet, he is the one who came home with a puppy. He enjoyed spending time with his nieces and nephews, engaging in water sports, bowling, and mostly in trips to the family cabin in Colorado. His family and friends, who mourn his passing, will celebrate his life at a memorial service on September 6, 2014.

Tribute Wall

“ Never forgotten! ”

ken Goldberg - August 27, 2020 at 10:41 PM

“ Charles D. Horn ”

ken Goldberg - August 27, 2020 at 10:41 PM