

David Allen Claycomb

July 8, 1977 - May 20, 2026

David Allen Claycomb, 48, passed away peacefully surrounded by the love of his family.

David was a proud United States Army veteran who dedicated his life to serving others. Following his military service, he pursued his passion for education and became a history teacher with Garland ISD, where he inspired countless students through his knowledge, humor, and unwavering commitment to helping young people understand the world around them. His impact extended far beyond the classroom, and he will be remembered by many former students whose lives he touched.

David was a devoted husband, father, son, brother, and friend. He is survived by his beloved wife, Missi Claycomb; his sons, Jeffrey, Bubba, and Andrew Claycomb; his father, Allen Claycomb; his brother, Philip Claycomb; his in-laws, Jim and Dru Butler; and his faithful service dog, Natasha. He was preceded in death by those who welcomed him home before him.

Those who knew David knew his love for sports and his ability to bring people together through laughter, stories, and conversation. Whether cheering on a favorite team, sharing a piece of history, or spending time with those he loved, David approached life with passion and heart.

David's greatest pride was his family. He was a loving husband and father whose strength, guidance, and unconditional love will continue to live on in the lives of those he leaves behind.
