

Dickie Ware Madison

November 25, 1939 - March 4, 2025

Dickie Ware Madison, a beloved husband, father, brother, retired elementary gym teacher and Pops to his grandchildren, passed away on March 4, 2025, at the age of 85. Born on November 25, 1939, in Big Spring, Texas, Dickie led a life marked by dedication, adventure, and love for his family.

He is survived by his devoted wife, Carolyn Madison, whom he married on July 20, 1969, in Houston, Texas. Together, they created a wonderful life filled with cherished memories. Dickie leaves behind his sons, Kacy Madison of Richardson, Texas, and Mark Madison and wife Piper of Lubbock, Texas; and four adoring grandchildren; Carter, Brody, Brayden and Samantha and sister-in-law, Anita Morris and husband Michael of Dallas. He also leaves behind many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends whom he also loved dearly. He was preceded in death by his father, Carl Madison, mother, Jewell Madison, brother Gordon Madison and sister Carla Hatch.

Dickie dedicated 38 years of his life to education, inspiring countless students with his passion for teaching. Outside of school, he enjoyed traveling, camping, riding four wheelers in the mountains and sand dunes, playing with his remote-control cars and taking joyrides in his red Corvette. His greatest joy came from watching his grandchildren participate in their activities and spending time with his family.

The family request that memorial donations be made in Dickie's name to Feed My Starving Children, an organization close to his heart.

He will be remembered for his kindness, adventurous spirit, and loving nature. Dickie Ware Madison's legacy will live on through those who knew and loved him.

A Celebration of Life will be held Friday, March 28, 2025, at 11:00am at First Baptist Richardson, 1001, North Central Expressway, Richardson, Texas.
