

Engracia Pascua

Our beloved mother, Engracia Amadore Pascua, was called to her eternal home while surrounded by her loved ones on October 1st of 2015 at her home in Plano, Texas. She was born on May 7th of 1916 in Samar, Philippines to Jose and Raymunda Amadore. Engracia grew up in Calbayog city and moved to Manila in the 1940's. She worked as a checker/ ticket employee at a local movie theatre. She went to Dressmaking School and had her own Dress Shop business sewing custom made clothing. Engracia married Gaudencio Pascua, Sr. in January 20, 1947 in Manila, Philippines. They were happily married for 46 years until his death in 1992. Engracia was a member of Catholic Women's League in Quezon City, Philippines until she migrated to Stamford, Connecticut in 1981 with her husband. She enjoyed sewing, geriatric dancing, playing mahjong, casino trips and caring for her grandkids. She also loved to watch boxing and basketball on TV. When the weather started to get cold, she knew football season was around the corner and would proclaim "Bangaan na naman". This translates to "let's get ready to rumble". Engracia is survived by her daughters Irene Velasco, Gloria Domingo, and Zenaida Millan; her sons Gaudencio Jr., Cesar, and Alfredo Sr.; grandchildren; great grandchildren; nieces and nephews and other relatives. Engracia was preceded in death by her husband, parents, siblings Angeles and Francisco, children Leoba, Loreto, Jesus, and Angelita. A visitation will be held at Distinctive Life Funeral Home at 1611 N. Central Expressway , Plano, TX 75075 on Sunday, October 4, 2015 from 5:00 pm to 9:00 pm. Church services at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in

Plano, Texas will be announced later. Nanay Engracia will surely be missed by everyone whose life she had touched. She shared and lived 99 years of her life showing the value of family, faith, hope, and love. And she did it all with Grace
