

Gregory Cashiola

June 29, 1964 - April 2, 2025

It is with deep sadness and profound gratitude that we announce the passing of Gregory Cashiola, 60, of Carrollton, Texas, a bright light that God called home on April 2, 2025. Born on June 29, 1964, in Houston, Texas, Gregory was a beloved son of Ross Cashiola and Connie Jones.

Gregory's life was a testament to love and commitment, especially in his cherished marriage to Gloria, whom he wed on February 8, 1986, in San Antonio, Texas. Together, they spent nearly four joyful decades as partners, navigating life hand in hand, building a home filled with music, compassion and laughter.

Gregory's professional life as a Senior Facilities Engineer exemplified his dedication and passion for his work. His creative spirit extended beyond the office, Gregory found joy in maintaining his home, yard and working on his cars, often diving into projects with hands-on diligence. An honorable veteran, Gregory served in the Army from October 1981 to October 1984, earning the rank of Private First Class.

Adored as the eldest of three brothers, Gregory will be remembered not only for his love for animals and his substantial kindness but also for his unyielding determination to tackle challenges and nurturing close relationships. His family and friends will forever carry his gentle presence in their hearts.

Gregory is preceded in death by his father, Ross Cashiola. He is survived by his devoted wife, Gloria Cashiola; his mother, Connie Jones; his brothers, Phillip Cashiola and Jonathan Cashiola; along with numerous other family members and friends who loved him dearly.

A Celebration of Life will be held in honor of Gregory, allowing all who knew him to come together and reflect on the remarkable impact he made in their lives. Details regarding the time and location of the celebration will be announced at a later date.

As we say goodbye to a remarkable man, let us remember and celebrate a life lived fully and with an unwavering spirit. He will be greatly missed, but his legacy of love and kindness will forever remain a part of us all.
