

John Leland Day

John Leland Day, 77, of Wallis, Texas passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loving family Monday morning, January 11, 2016. John was born September 18, 1938 in Pontiac, Illinois. From fishing, traveling and camping to watching the Food Network and cooking, he lived a life enjoying the many things he loved. He was an expert in small maintenance repair, carrying a business many years of his life. He was a go-getter, always fiddling with or fixing something. Even in his last days, he was always on the go, mowing the property or taking trips to Walmart. That was Papa, the man we were blessed to have so many years with. John was preceded in death by his wife, Nancy Louise Hilberger-Day; his father, George Washington Day and mother, Vera Etna Smith; his brothers, George Eldon Day and Gene R. Day and his sisters, Wanda M. Day and Marjorie Ellen Day. John is survived by his daughters, Mrs. Patricia Ann Stettner of Roswell, GA; Mrs. Robin "Bobbi" Day Englishbee of Wallis, TX; Mrs. Pamela Day Townsend of Bayou La Batre, AL; Mrs. Lori Lee Day-DeVoe of Katy, TX, and Mrs. Amy Day Wheeler of Katy, TX; seventeen grandchildren, thirty great-grandchildren, one great-great-granddaughter, and many nieces and nephews. He is also survived by his brother Donald Day of Bayou La Batre, Alabama and sister, Judith Day McCullough of Burlington, Iowa.
