

Jowie DeJesus

With deep sorrow, we would like to announce the passing of Jowie Fuentes De Jesus, aka Kimberly Houston on November 24, 2014. Jowie/Kim 30, was born on November 22, 1984 in Malabon City, Philippines. He graduated high school at Klein Forest High School in 2002 and Remington College in 2008. After High School, Jowie moved to Los Angeles, Ca. and worked for a Mortgage Company. After a while, he decided to move back to what he considered as his hometown; Houston, Texas. Jowie also loved to perform, and that is when Kimberly Lorna Divine, or Kimberly Houston was born. He enjoyed every moment of it. He once said that "When I am Kimberly, I am happier and livelier". Jowie/Kim is a very loving person, fun and always happy to be with. He has a big smile and has a big heart. Jowie is survived by his dad, Virgilio, his brothers Joel and Arnel, sisters in law Flery and Cecil, and his 2 nephews Arcelio and Jocel Nash, uncles, aunts, cousins and friends from Montrose District, Houston and other areas, Los Angeles and Manila. The family of Jowie aka Kim wants to extend their appreciation for all the support and prayers that they received from their relatives and Jowie /Kim's friends. Please pray for the repose of the soul of Jowie De Jesus and may the good lord grant him an eternal peace.
