“Granny was with me since the day I was born and has been there every step of the way. She was ALWAYS there for my sports and music and anything that was me getting out of my room. She always knew just what I needed... even when I didn't know myself. I already miss those weekly calls from my grandma. She is one in a million and will always be in my heart.

“Oh my Kathy, I enjoyed her so much. We would have our special evening meals when my husband was out of town and laughed a lot. El Matador's was her favorite then we found Smokehouse!! Kathy was one of a kind and no one could ever take her place. Her smile was always something you could count on and I loved her so much. She will be greatly missed!!

“ MY DEARIST KATHY\nI began loving you from the moment we first met and will always love you. I am so blessed for your sharing with me the last fifty plus years. You gave me so so much. You showed me how to love unconditionally. You helped me to be less selfish and more caring. You showed me how to be a friend.\nYou gave us a family with four loving children and taught them the goodness of life and how to find some happiness along the journey to eternity. You gave us a chance to laugh and make fun of one another. I remember way back, when we had our last real argument. Your final words to me were, \"When you start thinking the way I do, then we'll have something to talk about!\" Then we both started laughing. Then when we first met, you were so thin, weighing less than a hundred pounds and I used to kid you that you were so skinny that your ankles looked chubby. Everbody laughed but you took it seriously. Wow! What a great line to get a first date. \"Hi, nice ankles!\"\nYour caring is without boundaries. You brought joy and the excitement for life to all your friends and everyone you met.\nYou are the most kind and giving person I've ever known, and you could forgive anyone who was truly deserving.\nYou certainly had a purpose driven life, by sharing His goodness and love with so many.\nThe two greatest lessons that I learned over these many years is that of giving and forgiving.\nMy dearest Kathy, I am so honored to have been your choice as your partner for life. Your ability to see people for what they have become and yet you chose me with all my short comings. I love you so so much!\nLove always,\nMe

“ This is really hard to write. I love my mama so much it hurts. She was so amazing. And crazy and funny and bossy and loving. Probably why I'm so bossy too. She was so in love with my Anthony and Maddie. She had to spend every chance she could with them. We meant everything to her. I keep remembering all the times we went shopping and went out to dinner together. She loved doing that. Christmas time was her favorite. Probably why those times are my favorite too. She thought of everyone before herself and had a smile and laugh that was absolutely contagious. I miss that so much. She was a true American and touched so many people. She has more friends than I could possibly count! I know this is so hard on them too. I don't know what I'm gonna do without her.
