“ I was so saddened when I got the text about Kyle. I had the pleasure of working within its him at PepsiCo. He was not only a help but my work family. I used to say to him he's my brother from another mother. If one of us kept IMing we would say to the other one, "you're killing me smalls". My heart is weeping but smiling when I think of all the times he made me laugh I would cry. God Bless my dear friend.
