

Linda Silinsky-Kephart

A Life Well Lived Linda Susan Silinsky-Kephart passed away at her home in Lakeway, Texas surrounded by family and friends on February 26, 2016. Linda was born in Queens, New York on April 26, 1950. She had a successful career with oilfield service company Schlumberger where she held a number of key executive communication positions until she retired after 33 years of service. Linda always wanted to retire to the Austin area and moved in 2006 to her Lakeway home. After retirement she consulted for the Society of Petroleum Engineers and the International Association of Drilling Contractors as well as serving on the executive board of the Women's Club of Greater Lakeway. Linda is survived by her daughter Christine Marie Silinsky who moved from California to be by her mother's side as soon as she learned of her mother's diagnosis. Linda also leaves behind her beloved childhood friend Gail Gleave of Whitestone, New York, Liz Haught, Susan Bryce, Mary Montgomery, Marie & Richard Drury and more friends too many to name. She holds them in her heart for their kindness. Lastly she leaves Charles A. Edwards, Colonel, U.S. Army (Retired), who promised to be by her side until the end...he kept his word. In lieu of flowers a donation to the ALS Foundation is appreciated. A memorial service will be held at Emmaus Catholic Parish, Lakeway, Texas, March 1st at 11:00am with a reception immediately following the mass.
