

Louise Rapier Grace

Louise Grace, age 82 of Austin, Texas, left this world suddenly Monday night, June 26th, at St David's Hospital in Austin. She was born in Washington, D.C. and grew up in the Norfolk, Virginia area. Preceded in death by her parents Thomas G. and Mildred D. Rapier, her son, Curtis Thomas Grace, and her children's father Henry G. Grace.

She is survived by her three remaining children; Stephen (Denise) Grace of Austin, Nina Grace Cox of Hendersonville, Tennessee, and Nancy (Erick) Bonner of Houston. A granddaughter, Lauren Cox, and 4 grandsons, Kyle (Austin) Grace, Drew Grace, Erick "Beaux" Bonner Jr, and Spencer Cox. She is also survived by two sisters; Elizabeth "Libby" Mank and Millie (Bob) Anderson and four brothers; Joseph (Joyce) Rapier, Thomas (Linda) Rapier II, William (Joan) Rapier and James (Benetta) Rapier.

She was an avid reader, marvelous cook, loved playing cards and dominos, and being around her many friends. She will be remembered and missed by all who knew her.

A memorial service will take place in Austin on Friday, July 7th, 3:00 at Englewood Estates.

A funeral service and internment to follow on Saturday, July 8th, 2pm at Woodlawn Chapel and Cemetery in Houston.

Her family wishes to express their sincere and heartfelt gratitude to the staff and residents at Englewood Estates, true friends all, and to the CVRU staff at St. Davids Hospital.