

Margaret Zarate Parrado

July 19, 1929 - December 18, 2020

Margaret Zarate Parrado passed away December 18, 2020. Margaret was born on July 19, 1929 to Gregorio and Maria Zarate near Bay City, Texas. She is survived by her daughter, Margaret Bryan and daughter in-law, Lynette Bryan. She is also survived by her siblings, Julian Zarate, George Zarate, Phil Zarate, Joyce Cantu, Mary Escobar, Natalia Valadez, Emilio Zarate, and many nieces and nephews.

Margaret had the most kind, generous, and loving soul, and was a faithful servant to the Lord. Her heart was pure and full of empathy - she never hesitated to give her own coat, last dollar, or even a simple prayer for others in need. She will always be remembered for her quick wit and being the life of any gathering.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Gregorio and Maria, husband Willie Parrado, siblings Marcelo Zarate, Lupe Zarate, Carmel Zarate, Amada Gonzales, Rosendo Zarate, Paula Zarate, Alonzo Zarate, Esperanza Villarreal and Tommy Zarate. Mass will be held at St. Augustine Catholic Church on Saturday, June 12, 2021 at 10:30 am, with a light reception after the service. In lieu of flowers, Margaret's wishes were for donations be made to your favorite charity.
