

Mark McDougall

Mark Alan McDougall, 53, of Austin, passed away at his parent's home in San Antonio, surrounded by his loving family on Tuesday, November 10, 2015. Mark attended Alamo Heights High School, graduating from San Antonio Christian School, and later attending Texas State University. Mark was a co-owner along with his business partner, Quitze Martinez, of Das Autowerks in Austin, a BMW and Porsche service center, where he made many wonderful friends who lovingly supported him during his illness. Mark is survived by his parents, Paul and Gloria McDougall; his three daughters, Allison Werre and husband, Richard of Round Rock, Natalie McDougall of Austin, and Lindsey McDougall of Georgetown; brother, Lance McDougall and wife, Patricia of Wauseon, OH; two nieces, Lexie Sinatra and husband, Stephan of Tuscon, AZ, and Caitlin McDougall of San Antonio.