Gutow, Marsha Gail Marsha Gail Gutow, 69, died peacefully Monday evening January 13, 2014, after a long battle with Alzheimer's. Marsha was born August 16, 1944 in Dallas, TX. She graduated from Hillcrest High School and attended the University of Arizona. After spending a few years working for the state of Texas, Marsha took over her father's scrap metal recycling business in South Dallas after his passing in 1978. Marsha was active in the Jewish community and was a consistent contributor to the Jewish Federation of Dallas. More than anything, she possessed an unmistakable laugh. Her time with family and friends is what she truly cherished. Marsha is preceded in death by her parents, Ruth and Albert Gutow and her brother, Andrew Gutow. She is survived by her sons Adam Gutow-Ellis, his wife Rachel of Bellaire, TX and Matthew Ellis, and his wife Pam of Bellaire, TX; grandchildren Noa, Jacob, Drew and Elliott, and brothers William Gutow and his wife Barbara of Dallas, TX and Rabbi Steve Gutow of New York City. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Alzheimer's Association.
