

Marvin Gliner

Marvin Gliner was born in the Bronx, NY on January 26, 1942. Marv lived in New York his whole life before moving to Fairview Texas in 2005. He left us on March 10, 2015 with his loving wife Sydell at his side. Marvin is survived by his wife Sydell Gliner, his brother Gerard Gliner, sister Marilyn Friedman, his sons Ira Grossman and wife Jami, Mitch Grossman and fiancée Phyllis Shapiro, Mark Grossman and wife Cheryl, and grandchildren - Michael, Elyse, Jeffrey, Ethan, Lindsay, and Allie. Marv was an exceptionally devoted husband and committed grandfather. He was passionate about his NY sports teams and in his retirement years he loved to spend time with family and friends and had great artistic talents that he expressed in his creative caricatures. You will be missed. Rest in Peace.
