

Mary Kay Huntington

Mary Kay Huntington was born October 20, 1932 in Pasadena, CA and passed away at home in Houston on April 5, 2015. Mary Kay led an adventurous life, touring the world playing tennis in the 1950s--including an appearance at Wimbledon--and was an accomplished sailor, painter, gardener and designer. She worked for many years as a draftsman for Mosbacher Energy and Cambe Maps. She was active in the Big Thicket Conservation Association, and built her dream retreat on Turkey Creek outside of Woodville, TX. Mary Kay is survived by her three children, John Eric Shlaudeman and wife Connie, Sarah Duck Loudermilk and husband John, Lydia Duck Dissly and husband Richard and grandchildren Ricki Lee, Hunter, Laura and Caroline. A private family ceremony will be held at a later date.
