Obituary for Mary Jeanes Crimmins

Mary Jeanes Crimmins, born July 11, 1949, is lovingly remembered for a life rooted in faith, service, and devotion to family. After attending Texas Christian University (TCU), Mary followed her calling to education and became a devoted Catholic school teacher. She spent many years teaching at Our Lady of Victory Catholic School, where she was known for her kindness, patience, and deep care for her students. Teaching was not simply her profession, but her vocation, and she touched countless lives through her gentle guidance and strong faith.

Outside the classroom, Mary cherished quiet and comforting pastimes. She enjoyed knitting, often creating heartfelt gifts for those she loved, and she took great pleasure in watching sports. These simple joys reflected her warm, kind, fun-loving, and competitive spirit.

Mary is survived by her loving children, Michael Sean Jeanes and Daniel Joseph Jeanes; her cherished grandchildren, Faith Elizabeth Jeanes, Brynn Caroline Jeanes, Emmie Katherine Jeanes, Jonathan Lane Jeanes, and Michael Joseph Jeanes; and her beloved daughters-in-law, Erin Rhodes Jeanes and Marianne O'Bryan Jeanes. She is also fondly remembered by her siblings, Patrick Crimmins, Tim Crimmins, Ann Vinson, and Michael Crimmins, along with their wonderful spouses and children, all of whom held a special place in her heart.

Mary was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Adrian Basil Crimmins and Mary Helen Crimmins, whom she now joins in eternal rest.

Mary Jeanes Crimmins will be remembered for her unwavering faith, her dedication to education, and the love she shared so generously with her family, friends, and students.

She took our class to her parents lake house her dad took us for boat rides. So sorry to hear of her passing wish I could have told her how much she meant to all of us.*
