

Myrene Boling

October 7, 1938 - February 3, 2025

Myrene (Phillips) Boling, beloved mother, sister, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on Monday, February 3, 2025, at the age of 86. Born on October 7, 1938, in Dripping Springs, Texas. Myrene moved to Houston in 1974, where she lived until her death.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Clyde and Alta Phillips, and her husband, Rodney Boling. Myrene is survived by her twin sister, Irene Alexander, her son, Deblin (Mary) Boling, her daughters, Tammy (Cris) Cardenas, and Pamela (Carlos) Rosario, along with eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, all of whom she cherished dearly.

Myrene dedicated her professional life to the hospitality industry and later transitioned to property management, retiring at the age of 67. Known for her vibrant spirit and zest for life, she enjoyed playing golf, visiting casinos, and spending quality time with her family. Myrene was adventurous at heart, embracing travel and thrill-seeking activities such as roller coasters and water slides well into her late 60s.

Myrene often remarked that she “had a good life,” and her happiest moments were spent surrounded by her loved ones. Her warmth, laughter, and love will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

A celebration of Myrene's life will be held at a later date, where family and friends are invited to share their memories and honor her legacy.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Myrene's name to the American Lung Association (https://action.lung.org/site/Donation2?df_id=31270&mfc_pref=T&31270.donation=form1&31271.donation=form1).
