“ Nancy, myself and sisters Kay, Joy and Mary all had such great times with Nancy. She was a part of our birthday dinners, we'd meet at a restaurant and though I can't put blame on anyone , somehow condiment containers always ended up in one of our purses. Salt & pepper shakers, tiny bowls, and a spoon or fork. Life was fun . She and I spent a lot of time together last year before their move back to Texas from Florida, where she cared for my precious aunt Margie, her mother-in-law. We shared so many laughs and conversations. She always told me you like a sister to me. She also talked a lot about her sisters, how much she loved them. We valued our friendship. I'm so grateful for our time together last year, so grateful for the memories we built over the years. Today she is with my sisters, her sisters of the heart, Joy and Kay. Rest Nancy in the arms of Jesus, and remember, you can't take the condiment containers from the table in Heaven. Love you my cousin, my friend, my sister of the heart. ❤️ Ann
