

Nancy Milliff Williams

Nancy Milliff Ballesteros Williams gave up her brave fight with cancer on June 6, 2014. She was born March 7, 1952 in Hunstville, Texas and lived in Texas her whole life. She had a big heart and a contagious laugh that made you want to be her friend. She loved her family, her many friends, and her Church. She loved to sing, and although her illness robbed her of her ability, it didn't quench her desire to sing in her soul. She married the love of her life, Carl 'Sonny' Williams on July 4, 2009. They shared a passion for the outdoors, and most of all the holidays of Halloween and Christmas. They would turn their house into a wonderland of sights and sounds, and people would drive for miles every year just to see what they had created. Nancy Williams was a beautiful lady, and she will be dearly missed by those who knew and loved her. She is preceded in death by: L.E. (Jim) Milliff, father; Betty L. Milliff, mother; James E. Milliff, brother; and Sonny (Carl) Williams, beloved husband. She leaves behind: beloved son, Mario Ricardo Ballesteros; beloved son, Sean Michael Ballesteros and daughter-in-law, Kim Ballesteros; precious grandson, Lyle Austin Ballesteros; brother, Jaime Ballesteros; sisters, Joyce Hempstead, Peggy Milliff Miller and Patricia Milliff Hodges; sisters-in-law, Carol Daniel and Teresa Ballesteros; brothers-in-law, Stan Stansbury and Martin R. Ballesteros; many cousins, nieces, nephews, grand-nieces, grand-nephews and good friends. Her home-going celebration will be held this Saturday, June 14 at 11:00am at First Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church, 4511 Eddie Street, Houston 77026. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to M.D. Anderson in memory of Nancy Williams.
