

Patricia "Patti" Huff

August 15, 1955 - November 7, 2025

It is with deep love and sadness that we announce the passing of Patricia "Patti" Huff, age 70, of Houston, Texas, on November 7, 2025. Patti brought light, laughter, and warmth to everyone who knew her, and her joyful spirit will be deeply missed.

She is survived by the love of her life, Mark Ambrecht, and her beloved fur baby Roxie Ragoon. Patti is also survived by her sister Kathleen Hancock and brother-in-law Wallace Hancock, her nephews Wallace Hancock (Jr.), Ryan Hancock, Jason Bradley, and Jeff Bradley, her niece Carrie Brown, her great-nieces and nephews Jorden Johnson, Finley Hancock, Weston Hancock, Jordan Bradley, Katie Delgado, Bailey Lynch, and Chloe Bradley, and her great-great nieces Kori Fincher and Aria Delgado.

Patti was preceded in death by her parents Jesse and Jonnye Huff, her sister Sharon Huff, her sister-in-law Janice Ambrecht, and her cherished fur babies Maggie Mae, Sadie Sue, Mia Maria, Jessie Jane, and Tiger Too.

Born and raised in Houston, Patti graduated from Westbury High School, where she formed lifelong friendships that she treasured dearly. She later became the dedicated office manager at Jonmar Electric, where her strong work ethic and warm personality made her an essential part of the company family.

A proud Houstonian, Patti was a superfan of the Houston Astros and Houston Texans — always cheering the loudest for her teams. She loved decorating for every holiday, hosting gatherings, and filling her home with laughter and friendship. Known affectionately as “Aunt Patti” by so many, she had a special gift for making everyone feel loved and welcomed.

Her adventurous spirit took her to motorcycle rallies across the country and concerts featuring her favorite rock and roll legends. Ever the life of the party — or “Party Patti,” as many called her — she even made national news once for her hilarious Halloween decor featuring a Texans Matt Schaub jersey in the trunk of her car on CNN.

She leaves behind a legacy of joy, compassion, and celebration that will continue to shine in the hearts of everyone she touched.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Sunday, December 7, 2025, from 12:00 PM to 3:00 PM at The Wildcatter Saloon: 26913 Katy Fwy, Katy, TX 77494. In true Patti fashion, guests are encouraged to come dressed in their best Astros and Texans gear to honor her vibrant spirit and love for her hometown teams.

Though our hearts ache, we find peace in knowing that Patti is reunited with her loved ones and fur babies in Heaven — likely hosting a grand celebration, music playing, and laughter echoing through the skies.

Her joy, kindness, and love will live on in all who were blessed to know her.
