Knowing she is in heaven with Jesus and with Howard, whom she missed very much.

“ When I look back and remember. I'm grateful for all the times, you healed my hurts, and calmed my fears. Every small but significant lesson you taught me, so that I could face the world. I learned confidence and cooking. What it was to provide a safe and secure life, for me and my future. I'm thankful for all you showed me, about how to love and give. Lessons that now bring so many blessings to me, each and every day. Your sacrifices and unselfishness did not go unnoticed, Mom, I admire you, I respect you, I love you. I'm so glad you were my mother!

“ There are way too many but one of my favorite memories is when I returned back to Texas after I graduated high school. Her and I went to lunch one day. She parked in the farthest out parking spot in Town East Mall. As we begin to walk, she grabbed my hand and held it tight. \nI know you and Uncle Smitty are having the time of your life singing and playing the organ. I Love You!\u2764\u2764\u2764
