

Rickey Wright

Rickey Wade Wright, 59, lost his battle with cancer on February 13, 2016 in Plano, Texas. Rick was already a widower for almost four years, because his wife of nearly 40 years, Sheryle Rae Wright, lost her own battle with cancer in May 2012. Rick and Sheryle moved to Texas from their home in Ohio in order to provide a great life for themselves and their growing family. Together they built the foundation of a beautiful family and a successful company in order to support themselves. Even though he had his own business, he and his wife always made time to be involved in their children's activities and sports. He always beamed with pride when it came to his family's accomplishments and never hesitated to be supportive. He leaves behind three adult children and their own families. His oldest son, Rickey Wright, who is married to Kori Wright and have their own son, Michael. Joseph Wright, who is married to Alison Wright and have their own children; Abigail, William, and Emma. He also leave behind his youngest child and only daughter, Sarah Rubio. The life of Rick will continue to be celebrated through the lives of the family he leaves behind.
