

Robert W. Dorsey

Robert Wylie "Bob" Dorsey, 97, passed away Jan. 18. He was born Feb. 12, 1917 in W. Alexander, PA to Frank and Elisabeth Dorsey. After his service in the Aleutian Islands during WWII, he obtained an MBA from University of Southern California and settled in Dallas. He was married to the late Julia Dorsey for 61 years and worked as a Chartered Financial Analyst and stockbroker until his retirement at the age of 89. During his 31 years in the US Army Reserve, he advanced to the rank of Lt. Colonel and was active in the American Legion, Assoc. of the US Army and the Military Order of the World Wars. He was preceded in death by siblings Charles, William and Mary Elisabeth and is survived by half-brother Thomas. He is survived by sons Don Dorsey, wife Dawn; Darrell Chandler, wife Linda; grandchildren Zack Dorsey, Ben Chandler, wife Gloria, Vicky Chandler, Kate Chandler, husband Alex Perez; great-grandchildren Lilly Phillips and Abbe Chandler. A graveside service is to be held at noon in the Veterans IV section of Restland Memorial Park, 13005 Greenville Ave Dallas, Texas