

Roberta "Bobbie" Singley

Roberta "Bobbie" Singley, 81, of Houston, after a brief illness, passed away peacefully on Saturday, April 4, 2015. Bobbie was born in 1934 in Birmingham, Alabama, to Robert and Georgette Hyde. After graduating from Shades Valley High School, she attended Auburn University, where she earned her Bachelor of Arts in English. While there, she was an active member of Delta Zeta sorority, as well as a member of the Glee Club. It was also at Auburn that she met her husband, John Singley. After graduation, the couple married and settled in Birmingham, and soon had three sons, Larry, Craig and Jimmy. Bobbie was a devoted mother to her three boys, attending all of their many sporting events, both in Birmingham, and then in Houston, following John's transfer here. She also enjoyed playing in her bridge club, watching her beloved Astros, and cheering on Auburn's football team. Bobbie also enjoyed being a grandmother to her granddaughter, Amanda Singley, whom she adored, and corresponding with her grandson, Jack Singley, who lives in Birmingham, who was a great source of pride for her. Bobbie is preceded in death by her husband, John Singley, her mother, Georgette Canterbury, her father, Robert Hyde, and her grandmother, Edith Davis. She is survived by her sons, Jimmy Singley and his son, Jack Singley; Craig Singley; and Larry Singley, his wife, Becky and their daughter, Amanda. A celebration of Bobbie's life will be held on Saturday, April 18th, at 11 a.m. at The Well, located at 13186 Memorial.
