

Roc Rene Rawlings

July 24, 1956 - August 24, 2025

In loving memory of Roc Rene Rawlings, who left this world on August 24, 2025, at the age of 69. Roc was born on July 24, 1956, in Irving, Texas, to the cherished Irving and Edna Rawlings. He grew up with a zest for life and a talent that would shape his future.

Roc, a master goldsmith and self-employed jeweler, dedicated over 45 years to his craft, earning respect and admiration in the jewelry industry. His work was more than just a profession; it was a true passion, and he relished every moment spent creating beautiful pieces that brought joy to others.

In September 1980, Roc married, Carol Rawlings, in Dallas, Texas. Together, they built a beautiful family and created countless memories. Roc is lovingly remembered by his mother, Edna and spouse Dee, sons, Tanner Rawlings and wife Kellie, Travis Rawlings, and Gage Rawlings and wife Aline-each of whom carry forward his spirit and values. He is also survived by his siblings, Irving Rawlings, Jr. and wife Tina, John Rawlings and wife Claudine, and Tia Crawford and husband Tom, as well as two beloved grandchildren and a wide circle of friends and family who will miss him dearly.

Roc was a man of many passions. He played high school basketball, proudly cheering on his favorite teams, with a special love for the Dallas Cowboys. He was an avid NASCAR fan and found joy in watching golf and football. His culinary skills put smiles on faces at family gatherings, as he delighted everyone with his amazing cooking.

As we gather to celebrate his remarkable life, we remember the warmth, kindness, and laughter Roc brought into our lives. He taught us the importance of family, hard work, and embracing every moment with joy.

He will forever hold a special place in our hearts, as we remember him with love and gratitude for all the joy he brought into our lives.

Roc was preceded in death by his father: Irving Rawlings Sr..
