

Romelda J. Rossetti

Romelda J. Rossetti, 77, surrounded by her family, passed away February 18, 2015 at MD Anderson Cancer Center, after a long and hard-fought battle with AML. She had recently moved to Texas 6 months prior, to continue her treatment and be closer to family. She was born Romelda J. Waldon in Royal Oak, Michigan, and attended Hillsdale College in Hillsdale, Michigan where she was a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. It was also there that she met her husband of 56 years, John R. (Jack) Rossetti. She was a stay-at-home mom for many years and then became an Office Manager for various companies including BASF and Sun Chemical in Kalamazoo, Michigan. She retired in 1994, when she and Jack became "Snowbirds" and spent winters in Alabama golfing, entertaining and enjoying the warm weather. In 1997 she moved to Gulf Shores, Alabama with her husband. During her 17 years in Gulf Shores, she was very active in the Home Owners Association of their residence adding many years as President of that organization. She loved being with family and friends, traveling and spent many years taking her grandchildren on vacations in the summer. She was an accomplished seamstress and enjoyed all types of needle-work, an avid reader and master of the crossword puzzle. She had a great sense of humor and loved to laugh. She was a very devoted, loving wife and mother. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband Jack, her mother Martha Walker, brother William Waldon and father John C. Waldon. She is survived by her four children: Cyndy, Toby and Bill (Patty) Rossetti of Tomball, TX.; John (Sharon) Rossetti of Sonoma,

CA.; 9 grandchildren; 2 nieces; 3 nephews and many dear friends across the country. She will be forever in our hearts.
