

Rozetta Louise Nelke

September 29, 1939 - May 3, 2026

Rozetta Nelke, age 86, passed away peacefully on May 3, 2026.

Rozetta was devoted to her family and found great fulfillment in preserving its history. She spent many years researching family lineage and carefully organizing photographs, creating a lasting record of memories to be shared across generations.

She is survived by her husband, Larry Nelke; her son, David Nelke and his wife Lynn; her granddaughter, Sierra and her husband Stephen, and their children, Shay and Scarlett; and her granddaughter, Erica, and her children, Kody, Konnor, and Ryan.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Lidi, and his wife, Erna; and her parents, Germano and Albina Gasparotto.

In her later years, she faced Alzheimer's disease and dementia. She remained surrounded by her family, and in her final days, she was smiling and engaged, sharing special moments with her great-granddaughter Scarlett.

Rozetta will be remembered for her dedication to family and her commitment to preserving its stories. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
