

Shirley Ann Brown

Shirley Ann Parks Brown was born December 5, 1946 and departed her earthly assignment on August 29, 2017. For anyone that knew Momma Shirley understood her love for people and her need to help others was her purpose in life. During her years she moved about graciously on this earth sharing her love to all that she met and looking to inspire others to be the best that they could be. As a matron in the community of Macon GA Momma Shirley served in the church (St. Matthews) for many years as well as working with her Eastern Star sisters mentoring those in need. Shirley leaves behind a legacy that many wish to have and a family daughters Cynthia M Brown, Andreal Rivers(Brown) spouse Darnell Rivers niece Nicole McFadden nephew James Burgess grand children Bahja Moore, Aryunna Brown, Chinasa Dibiaezue, Aryah Rivers, Chandler Rivers, Wynter Rivers, and one great grandson Damir Andrews that will strive to continue her works. As we celebrate the life of Shirley Parks Brown let's not forget that she loved you all and there is NOTHING you can do about it.
