

Steven "Steve" Wilt

January 27, 1959 - August 2, 2019

Steven Wilt was born in Lakeland, Florida. He became a resident of Denton Texas in 1991. Steve was preceded in death by both of his parents, Roy and Nadine Wilt. In 1991, Steven married Patty, and they had been married over 26 years. Steven had 3 daughters from a previous marriage, named Stephanie, Jessica, and Brittney, and one Son from his current marriage, named John.

Steven loved driving, and drove school buses for special needs students for many years, until his eyesight eventually gave way. Steven loved being online with his computer. He would spend much of his time getting to know people from around the world online, forming friendships with people thousands of miles away.

Steven enjoyed the outdoors, and was particularly fond of both the mountains and the oceans. He loved spending time on beaches, relaxing with his family, enjoying all the beauty that god has created.

His presence, laugh, humor love and friendship will truly be missed.
