

Terrence "Terry" Marie Fazio

November 21, 1947 - April 13, 2025

Terrence (Terry) Marie Fazio (née Lawler), age 77, of Dallas, Texas, passed away peacefully on April 13, 2025. She was born on November 21, 1947, in Cleveland, Ohio, and remained a proud Clevelander at heart, cheering on her beloved Browns and Guardians every season.

Terry graduated from Villa Angela High School and later attended Kent State University. In 1984, she made Dallas her home, where she built a life rich in love, family, faith, and service.

She was the devoted wife of the late John Fazio, with whom she shared 39 cherished years of marriage until his passing six years ago. Terry is survived by her stepchildren—Chuck, John Jr., and Janice—and grandchildren—Matt, Cindy, Dave, James, and Jaclyn. She is also lovingly remembered by her three brothers—Tim, Jim, and Bob—as well as her goddaughter and niece, Samantha, her nephew Chris, and her longtime caregiver and beloved friend, Sijon.

Terry was a deeply giving person and a woman of unwavering Catholic faith. She was a dedicated parishioner at St. Monica Catholic Church in Dallas and found great joy in the simple things: time spent with children—especially those of family and friends—and the loving companionship of her dogs.

Her legacy of kindness, compassion, and devotion will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to the SPCA of Dallas, in honor of Terry's lifelong love for animals.

“ I've known Terry for several years and she was a wonderful lady. I put her Christmas tree up each year. She would let me know she wanted her tree up in October. I was proud to call her a friend and I will miss her.

“ My mom, Janet, worked for the Fazio's when they opened the first Jote's. She moved to Dallas to help w/the store there as well. In the midst of that transition, my sister committed suicide. Terry and John were tremendously kind and supportive as our already dysfunctional family learned to address this new tragedy. They were always there for my mom and our family. I know that John and Terry are happily reunited w/each other and their pups at the Rainbow Bridge -- and as soon as they've caught up, they'll be off for coffee or a glass of wine w/my mom.

Many hugs and wishes for peace and comfort are going out to all Terry's family -- brother's, children, grandkids and dear, dear friends.
