She finished her education and continued to work hard to care for her family. Soon after met and married her loving husband and friend, Tamosh. The family relocated in 2006 to Austin, Texas. This family, and her role as a mother and grandmother was the most important thing to her. This is where she drew her strength and left her legacy. Being with family and friends is what Teruko enjoyed the most. Her life had many obstacles, yet through it all she persevered. This perseverance through adversity is a powerful lesson for us all. She worked her whole life to care for her kids and family and was a good friend to those who knew her. The ways she touched our lives will remain. God has truly taken another angel. She will be missed. She is preceded in death by her parents Robert and Tomiko Merrell. She is survived by her husband of 11 years, Tamosh Harris; 3 children, Natasha, Latisha, and Tahro; 5 grandchildren, Taniyah, Tayveon, Rejahna, Reginald Jr., and Laylah; sister, Victoria Carlson; 2 nephews, Jason(Rachel), Joshua(Karma), and a host of nieces and nephews(5); family and loved ones in Japan. ~Butterfly As you danced in the light with joy, love lifted you, As you brushed against this world so gently, you lifted us.~ T.C Ring
