

Theresa Weldon Harris

November 25, 1953 - September 10, 2025

It is with deep sorrow and heartfelt reflection that we announce the passing of Theresa Weldon Harris, a cherished mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, who left us peacefully on September 10, 2025, in McKinney, Texas. Born on November 25, 1953, in the vibrant city of New Orleans, Louisiana, Theresa made her mark on the world with a spirit that was as bright as the morning sun.

Theresa dedicated 18 fulfilling years to a career in customer service within the telecommunications industry, where her warm smile and unwavering support made a lasting impression on everyone she encountered. Beyond her professional life, Theresa thrived in her roles as a mother and grandmother. She had a profound love for gardening, nurturing both plants and her family with equal passion. Her joy was found in travel, and her heart was fullest when she shared precious moments with her four beloved grandchildren, showering them with affection and wisdom.

As a strong woman of faith, Theresa lived her life with a deep conviction and joy, sharing the love of God with everyone she met. Her legacy of kindness and compassion will forever resonate in the hearts of those lucky enough to have known her.

Theresa leaves behind her devoted daughter, Christie Brinkman and her husband Gregory of Chicago, Illinois; her loving son Brian Harris and his wife LaToya of Dallas, Texas; and her sister Marion Butler of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. In addition, she will be lovingly remembered by her four grandchildren, numerous family members, and countless friends who will all miss her dearly.

Theresa was preceded in death by her mother Doretha Harris, as well as her beloved siblings Marjorie Gaines, Doristein Cummings, Charles Harris, Gerald Harris, Vincent Harris, George Harris, and James Harris.

Theresa Weldon Harris will be profoundly missed, but her spirit will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

“ I was blessed to know Theresa for over thirty years. She was my friend. She was a woman of deep faith who truly loved the Lord, her children, Brian & Christie, and her four grandchildren. She will be missed. I will forever cherish the precious memories shared over the years. I take comfort in knowing "...to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord."
