

William Graham Love

William Graham Webster Love, born on October 31, 1990, passed away on October 7, 2015. Graham is survived by his parents, Shirley Webster and Ross Love, and siblings Jessica and Travis Webster Love. Graham enjoyed and excelled at understanding how things worked and constructing or repairing them, whether it was rebuilding a '78 Chevy truck, constructing a workshed, or repairing industrial equipment for customers of Energy Services Group. Whatever Graham did, he did with no hesitation - racing headfirst into a playground pole, skidding across gravel and getting injured at bike safety training, or skateboarding at high speed. Especially when doing a project for others, he went above and beyond making sure his work was thorough and complete. Graham enjoyed outdoor activities such as baseball and camping, earning an Eagle Scout while a member of Troop 505, and camping at Philmont Scout Ranch twice. He dreamed of returning to Alaska after camping, hiking, kayaking and ice climbing there. Graham was intellectually curious. He enjoyed a wide variety of art and devoured the Planet Earth series. His list of requested gifts last year included engineering and mechanical textbooks. Graham was kind and generous, and gave the warmest hugs conveying strong love. Memories of Graham's life will be celebrated on his 25th birthday with family and friends.
